

SPONSOR GELEK RIMPOCHE'S JEWEL HEART RETREATS

Gelek Rimpoche's goal, consistent with the Tibetan Buddhist tradition, is to offer all teachings and retreats free of charge.

To support Rimpoche's goal, Jewel Heart is hoping to offer all retreats free of charge through the generosity of sponsorship.

Please consider becoming a sponsor for a Jewel Heart retreat and benefit yourself and others.

To learn more about sponsorship,
we invite you to contact Jewel Heart Executive Co-Director, Carole Corcoran at carole@jewelheart.org.

SPONSORSHIP IN 2013

Winter Retreat

Earlier this year, due to the kind generosity of two sponsors, the annual Jewel Heart Winter Retreat was offered free of charge, meeting the $50,000 retreat budget.

Thanks to their sponsorship, 180 people were able to attend in Ann Arbor, MI, arriving from Asia, Latin America, Europe and North America and including many who would otherwise have been unable to participate.

Memorial Day Weekend Retreat

For the annual Memorial Day Weekend Retreat held at the Garrison Institute in New York, an anonymous sponsor gifted the program fees for the first 100 registrants, with attendees solely responsible for their room and board expenses.

Joyful Summer Retreat

Through the generosity of more than 24 sponsors (with the hope that more sponsors will come forward), the Joyful Summer Retreat is also being offered free of charge and is close to, and expected to meet, the $75,000 retreat budget.

Become a 2013 Joyful Summer Retreat Sponsor ~ We invite you to contact Jewel Heart Executive Co-Director, Carole Corcoran at carole@jewelheart.org.

Jewel Heart rejoices in the kindness of the sponsorship for these three retreats and we hope sponsorships will continue to be offered, with similar announcements about future retreats and sponsorship needs to be made shortly.
